CAPITOL N.Y. ALL-TIME ATTENDANCE RECORD!

Clear the decks! This is the biggest thing since "Big Parade" and "The Big Hur." For the first time in the history of Loew Circuit, every single house held it over! There's no comparison or precedent to go by. It's the unique film sensation since talkies!

EXTRA! "AH WILDERNESS" IS THE NEXT M-G-M SENSATION!

Have you heard? Some say it's better than "State Fair." Did you read the amazing press notices from the California preview! Talk it up! Tell the folks it's another grand entertainment from those hit-makers Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, to follow "Mutiny", "Night at the Opera", "Broadway Melody of 1936", "China Seas", "Rendezvous", "Anna Karenina", "I Live My Life" (and Merry Xmas "A Tale of Two Cities")

Cast for M-G-M's

"Wife vs Secretary"

Three leading stars of the film world whose combined popularity possibly outshines any other star triumvirate, are to be united in one of the most important pictures of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's 1936 season.

They are Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, and Myrna Loy.

The picture that is to bring them together is to be Hunt Stromberg's production of Faith Baldwin's best-seller novel of metropolitan life, "Wife vs. Secretary".

Clarence Brown, as a reward for his direction of Greta Garbo in "Anna Karenina" and of Eugene O'Neill's classic, "Ah, Wilderness", has been assigned as director.

Universal's "Show Boat"

Stars Irene Dunne

Irene Dunne, who left New York Sunday, will arrive in Los Angeles Wednesday for her part in Carl Laemmle, Jr.'s production of "Show Boat" which will start on the 2nd day of December. Of course, Charles Winninger will play his original role of Captain Andy, Paul Robeson will sing the famous "Ol' Man River", Helen Morgan will play her original role of Julie, and will arrive by plane on December 15th, and Marilyn Knowlden has just been added to the cast.

"Silas Marner" Next

M-G-M Screen Classic

"Silas Marner", George Eliot's classic of nineteenth century rural England, will follow the masterpieces of Charles Dickens to the screen.

Unrivalled in the simple power of its plot, "Silas Marner" is considered one of the greatest literary achievements in the English language. Read by millions, generation after generation, with unabated appreciation, it has become one of the few standard classics in the high schools.

It is the tale of a linen weaver who becomes a miser after being embittered by a friend's treachery. He loses his gold, but finds an abandoned child, and through her he recovers his faith in mankind.

Britain Elects Laughton "Most Popular"

The results of a poll, conducted in the British press under the sponsorship of Alexander Korda, established Charles Laughton as the most popular screen actor in England. The star, who is soon to appear in the title role of "Cyrano De Bergerac", received nearly twice as many votes as his nearest contender.

One of the significant features of a poll is that of the 12 most popular actors, six are under contract to star in at least one Alexander Korda production. These are Laughton, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Robert Donat, Conrad Veidt, Leslie Banks and Clive Brook.

All Korda productions are released through United Artists.

Universal Film

"Sutter's Gold"

Although "Sutter's Gold", one of Universal's biggest productions for the year, went before the cameras at Universal City last week, only a few of the cast have been chosen. Edward Arnold will star and Lee Tracy will be the featured player. Montagu Love has an important role and last week Priscilla Lawson, from whom Universal expects a great deal, has been cast in the role of one of General Sutter's daughters. James Cruze is directing from a script by Gene Fowler, Jack Kirkland and Walter Woods.

Lily Pons Signed by

RKO Radio Pictures

Lily Pons, star of opera, air and screen, has been re-signed by RKO Radio Pictures to make another film, which will be produced at the company's Hollywood studios next September.

The taking up of Miss Pons' option followed the wave of preview enthusiasm over the star's debut film, "I Dream Too Much", which had its world premiere at the Radio City Music Hall, New York, on Thanksgiving Day.
